INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETION

As part of our Trade Compliance policy Swage Aero B.V. Group has implemented several processes and procedures that protect Swage Aero B.V. Group and our customers from any mishandling of our products. The End Consignee Statement is one of these processes that certifies that our customers will not transfer, export or re-export our products to any inappropriate end users and destinations or for prohibited end uses, without following the applicable European Union, United States and/or any other applicable laws and regulations.

Instructions for completing the Swage Aero B.V. ECS form:

1. The document must be sent to us on your company's letterhead or, if not available, authenticated with your company stamp (chop).
2. In the first line of text, you must insert your company's name where it states "This is to certify that (your company's name)".
3. Check the "Yes" or "No" box as applicable under 'Reseller/Distributor', as well as all the questions on military end use and user.
4. Please indicate if you intend to export the goods outside of your jurisdiction and list all countries outside of your country that you ship to.
5. Confirm that no items purchased from Swage Aero B.V. will be sold or transferred, directly or indirectly to Iran, North Korea, Syria, Russia, Belarus, Crimea or any contested region of Ukraine or Russia.
6. Sign, print and date the form.

This form is not valid unless all steps have been completed in full.
